Pan Brothers is one of Indonesia's largest garment manufacturers, operating around 15 facilities across Central Java. Established in 1980, the company went public in 1990. We specialize in producing high-performance technical outerwear, ranging from medium to high complexity.

Recognized as a Lighthouse Facility by the Indonesian government, we are committed to innovation, sustainability, and responsible manufacturing. We continuously invest in energy-efficient production processes, circular economy initiatives, and digitalization to reduce our environmental footprint. Our sustainability efforts include carbon reduction strategies and the use of recycled materials.

Pan Brothers partners with leading global brands such as Adidas, Uniqlo, Arc'teryx, Salomon, Lululemon, The North Face, Kathmandu, Hugo Boss and many more, delivering high-quality and sustainable apparel to the world.

Danliris is a fully-integrated Indonesian textile and garment manufacturer providing Spinning, Weaving, Dyeing, Finishing & Printing as well as Garment manufacturing services. We're supplier of International brands, such as: Country Road and Barbour.
